You are advised to take complete rest for the day to adapt yourself with the new environment at 11,135 feet altitude. Later, in the evening you can visit the Leh Market, Leh Palace, known as 'Lachen Palkhar' or Shanti Stupa, located on a hilltop near Changspa, reaching the top you will see the beauty of whole Leh town. Overnight stay at Leh.

Day 2 – Leh to Sangam

Sightseeing

After breakfast at the hotel, relax at the hotel, we will drive along the Leh - Srinagar Highway and visit some of the popular sightseeing along the way. We will visit the Hall of fame museum, which is built in the memory of those martyrs of numerous war that the region has seen. Also on the list are the Magnetic Hill, Pathar Sahib Gurudwara and Sangam -The confluence of Zaskar river & Indus River. Later we will return back to Leh and also visit the Spituk Monastery. Overnight stay at Leh.

Day 3 – Ride from Leh – Khardung La (5602m) – Hunder (4000m)

Today we will drive northward from Leh to Nubra valley, which is considered one of the most scenic valleys in the entire trans-Himalayan region. The valley boasts a unique landscape with sand dunes, lush green oasis and snow peaks, along with beautiful monasteries and villages. We will be crossing the Khardungla pass (18,380ft), considered the Highest all weather motorable pass in the world. The Pass has become a dream destination for bikers and adventurous souls from all across the world, we can click some photos, grab a hot tea from the cafeteria and start riding towards Nubra valley. We will drive past the North pullu check post, and through the narrow roads and blind curves to reach Diskit in the afternoon. We will visit the Diskit monastery, and the Maitreya Buddha statue which ideally sits atop a small hill overlooking the valley, the view from there is incredible.

Further, we will drive to the Hunder Sand dunes, which is among the most visited place in Ladakh and also enjoy the camel ride. Nubra is the only place in India where these camels exist.

Overnight stay at Hotel in Nubra.

Day 4 – Nubra – Pangong Tso (4350m) via Shayok

Today we will drive to the world famous Pangong lake, probably the most famous attraction of Ladakh. We will drive through the Shayok Road, which is one of the most scenic drives in the region. Pangong lake a high-altitude border lake measuring 134km in length and about 5 Km in width at the widest point. About 40 percent of the lake is in Ladakh while the remaining is in Tibet. The unique feature of the lake is the west end of the Lake which is in Ladakh is saline and supports no marine life except for a few micro-vegetation. The eastern end in Tibet is fresh and taste sweet. Once reaching Pangong, we will check into the camp/homestay we have booked for you.

Overnight stay at Pangong lake.

Day 5 – Drive from Pangong Tso (4350m) to Leh

Early morning, we will wake up to the mesmerising view of sunrise at the lake. The view and tranquillity will surely keep you wanting to come back again and again. The day's ride will begin soon after, through the nomadic land of Changthang, we may get to see some wild animals freely roaming the wide stretches of Changthang before ascending the Changla pass. Changla pass is once the 2nd highest motorable pass, and still a very tough at times due to extremely bad trails all along. The numerous water streams from the glacier will make it a very adventurous stretch to ride. We will descend the Changla pass, and ride to Leh. Overnight stay at Leh.

Day 6 – Departure from Leh

Early morning our driver will pick you up and transfer to the Kushok Bakula Rinpoche Leh airport to board a flight back to your next destination. The journey ends with lots of memories and adventure stories to be related once back home.
